

An Evening With Sophia Cruz

St. Thomas Community
Presbyterian Church

Fall Tea and Biannual Meeting

Monday, October 26, 2015

6:30 pm

55355 Mound Road
Shelby Twp.,
MI 48316
586.781.3025

www.stthomaspres.com

Pammela Castro, Graffiti Artist, Brazil

Investing In Women In Extreme Poverty

Changing Her Story

Celebrating Women and Embracing Our Power to Change Our World

Kolkata Sanved. Dance Movement Therapy, India

About Our Guest Speaker:

EMMY Award winning documentary filmmaker Sophia Kruz has a passion for non-fiction storytelling. Her work has screened at film festivals, museums, libraries, and and healthcare facilities nationwide, and is broadcast regularly on PBS stations.

Kruz is a producer in PBS Detroit's National Documentary Unit, and she is currently directing an independent documentary on the role of art in creating positive global change for women and girls called

CREATING4CHANGE.

*****

Changing HerStory is a women's micro-lending group that pools our funds to make loans to women in extreme poverty, helping them to improve their lives and the lives of their families and communities! Join us and find out more!

Feel free to bring friends -- you can register online at www.stthomaspres.org, or call St. Thomas Community Presbyterian Church at 586-781-3025